

crafting community

skill sharing

crafts in the lab

open source tools

present continuities:

People have the pressure to be productive in a system that exploits themselves, others, and resources. Our passions become a means for survival rather than for our own creative enjoyment.

alternative present:

Empowering people to create things themselves rather than relying on an exploitative system.

Creating space where people can slow down and make together, combating isolation, perfectionism, and honoring traditional methods of making.